THE ART OF ADVERTISING.

SOME OF THE ABSURD METHODS.

How Money is Wasted.

One of the strange things in business is the propensity of people to use irregular mediums for advertising.

IT IS UNACCOUNTABLE THE PRICES THAT SOME MEN PAY

for sticking their advertisements in irregular places. Persons will pay large sums for inserting their business cards in a section of a frame in a hotel, street-car, railway station, or in a hotel register, an almanac, guide-book, directories, maps, or annual of one sort or another. The by-ways they seek, or that successfully solicit them, are innumerable. In all this they ignore

THE MOST ESSENTIAL CONDITION IN ADVERTISING, namely: that it has the character and effect of the medium through which it is given to the reader. Advertisements thrust into irregular and unbusiness places impress the general mind that the concern is of a similar character. On the other hand, an advertisement in general newspapers of first-class standing carries the impression that the advertiser also has a standing in his own community, and that he does not shrink from competition with the best of them. These are

THE DIFFERENT IMPRESSIONS THAT ARE MADE

on all minds by advertising in journals of high character and circulation among the better classes. Every one experiences this in his own feelings, if he would but think on the subject. If any one is going to a place to buy, and has to seek dealers through advertisements, where will he look for them? Not in almanacs, theatre-bill frames, occasional advertising sheets, etc., etc. On the contrary, he looks to and he thinks that advertising in these gives an assurance of the good standing of the advertiser, his business enterprise, and the sufficiency of his stock.

THE BEST NEWSPAPERS OF THE PLACE,

Newspaper advertising is an art. It is not enough alone to advertise. It is necessary, in order to win success, to employ the best skill.

"Mr. Miller is a thorough and most reliable business man, and understands advertising to its utmost corners."—Chicago Saturday Evening Herald.

CHAS. K. MILLER & CO.'S

POPULAR

LIST OF LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

Western States, 400 Papers,

Southern States, 180 Papers.

The newspapers embraced in the following list have been selected with care, and include a large majority of the BEST LOCAL PAPERS, having a wide circulation throughout the Western and Southern States.

NO CO-OPERATIVE PAPERS ARE ADMITTED to these lists. Both sides are printed entirely at home by the publishers.

In large towns or cities where there are leading papers of opposite political parties, we have taken one of each class, as their circulation is as wholly distinct as if they were printed at a greater distance apart.

We offer space to advertisers at less than one-third publishers' rates.

NO DELAY IN INSERTING ADVERTISEMENTS occurs, as the advertisements appear in the next issue after they are received by the publisher.

Changes will necessarily occur from time to time among so many papers, but the full number will surely be maintained, and the character of the lists will at least be kept up to the present standard.

ADVERTISEMENTS OF TWO LINES

and upward will be received for any single State. Prices will also be furnished upon application for single papers, when selected from the list.

DISCOUNTS on orders for entire Western or Southern List or space above one inch will be allowed. Address

CHAS. K. MILLER & CO.,

Tribune Building, Chicago.

IOWA.

Advertisements occupying space of ONE INCH. 45 Papers. ONE MONTH. will be inserted in entire Iowa List, $33.

THE FASTEST STEAMERS IN THE TRADE.

PASSAGE MADE IN 7 DAYS, 10 HOURS.

The Saloon accommodation is fitted with all modern contrivances which can add to the comfort of the traveling public. In order to avoid unpleasant motion, the most valuable space amidships is allotted to the first-class cabins. The state-rooms are on the main deck, and the grand saloon has no sleeping berths (as is customary) around it, but extends from side to side, and is an elegant apartment, well ventilated, lighted and warmed, 75 feet by 41. The state-rooms have unusual comfort, light and ventilation; they are supplied with fresh water "laid on," and instant communication can be made with the steward's department by means of electric bells. The ladies' saloon, a piano, library, smoking-room, bath-rooms, barber's shop, etc., with a promenade of 150 feet, kept exclusively for saloon passengers, will aid in making the ocean passage enjoyable. The cooking arrangements will be found most complete; the galley connects with the serving tables by an elevator, insuring well-served meals. The steamers being alike, the purchasers of excursion and prepaid tickets are guaranteed equal accommodation and speed for each and every sailing.
